SAMPSON HAS SAILED

His Fleet Left Key West Today Under Sealed Orders.

GREAT EVENTS ARE SAID TO BE IMPENDING.

Key West, May 4—Special—Sampson's fleet sailed this morning under sealed orders. It is said the fleet has important work cut out for it.

Washington, May 4—Special—Sampson's orders are said to instruct him to attack Porto Rico and then engage the Spanish fleet.

Washington, May 4—Special—Nothing has been learned for several days relative to the Spanish fleet so long rendezvoused at St. Vincent, and officials are in ignorance as to whether or not the vessels have sailed from the Cape Verde Islands. It is known that efforts were made by the Madrid authorities to prevent the transmission of news of Dewey's victory at the Philippines to the Canaries for fear of its demoralizing effect upon the fleet there, but it is believed that intelligence of the engagement has been disseminated through the British consul, the only foreign representative at the islands. If this news has reached the sailors of Spain's fleet the enthusiasm that buoyed them so long will be completely dissipated, and they will enter any conflict that may be before them with the gravest of apprehensions.

It is regarded as certain that any orders received from Madrid since the engagement at Manila will command the fleet to keep massed, and in no case to permit any vessel single handed to attack the warships of the United States.

Made Major Generals.

Washington, May 4—Special—The president today sent to the senate the following nominations: Major Generals—J. C. Breckenridge, F. S. Otis, J. J. Coppinger, Wm. Shafter, Wm. M. Graham, James F. Wade, H. C. Merriam, J. H. Wilson, Fitzgugh Lee, W. J. Sewell, Joseph Wheeler. A large number of brigadier generals were also nominated.

Naval Militia Arrives.

Norfolk, Va., May 4—Special—One hundred and five members of the Illinois naval militia arrived here this morning. They are enthusiastic and full of fight. They have been put aboard the receiving ships until the navy department assigns them to some vessel.

Expedition to Manila.

Washington, May 4—Special—Preparations for a proposed military expedition to the Philippines are proceeding rapidly. The troops at San Francisco have been ordered to prepare to sail.

Hawaiian Islands Offered.

San Francisco, May 4—Special—Honolulu advises per steamer Mariposa are to the effect that President Dole has offer the Hawaiian islands to the United States to be used for war purposes.

No Official News.

Washington, May 4—Special—The government is still without official news from Dewey's fleet.

THEY ARE PRIZES OF WAR.

Philippine Islands May be Retained Under the Law of Nations.

Washington, May 4—Special—Statesmen who are looking ahead into the future and considering the possibilities of the far eastern question, see a possible condition that may make it necessary for the United States to retain control of the Philippines as colonies, or to at least keep control of a naval station there that will enable this government to look after its commercial interests in the Orient without asking favors of European powers.

It is contended that Spain's refusal to consider the president's propositions for peace in Cuba, and her refusal to receive the ultimatum of this government, has absolved the United States from all pledges. Spain chose to go to war, and this government, in the conduct of this war, is free to follow historic precedents. We are now free to fight Spain wherever we find her and take whatever Spanish possessions we can.

We have taken the Philippines in war, and other powers cannot question our right to hold them on our own terms. The usage of nations is to compel the vanquished to pay the cost of the war. Spain cannot do this in money, and it is contended that we have a right to hold for indemnity any of her possessions we may take, or may sell them to whom we please. We are pledged to give Cuba her independence, but we may do as we please with the Philippines and Porto Rico.

There is a strong sentiment developing in favor of taking Porto Rico at once, and keeping the island. It would settle the question of securing a naval station in the West Indies.

New York, May 4—Special—A dispatch from Kingston, Jamaica, reports that a mob attacked the British consul at Santiago de Cuba. He killed a Spaniard, and was imprisoned. Three British warships have been sent to the place.

RIVALRY WILL BE FRIENDLY THOUGH FIERCE.

Beloit Will Be the Scene of the Inter-State Contest on Thursday—List of Those Will Take Part—The Occasion Will Attract Many Prominent Educators.

Beloit, Wis., May 4—[Special]—Thursday will be a great day for Beloit, and will be long remembered by the people. Ten of the best men from ten of the leading states in the west, compete for the great prize in oratory. This is no ordinary occasion. It is one day in ten years. The inter-state contest was held but once before in Wisconsin, and that was at Madison in May, 1877, when the University there was a member of this association. The speakers and subjects are as follows:

Louis Reed, Ripon College, Ripon, Wis.; "Benjamin Franklin," A. C. Aldinger, Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa; "Webster and the Constitution," T. W. Nadel, DePaul University, Greenacres, Ill.; "The Newer Patriotism," J. E. Matthews, William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo.; "The Supremacy of Natural Law," J. D. Denison, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb.; "Public Opinion on Democracy," P. L. Elliot, State University, Lawrence, Kansas; "Liberty and Law," T. D. Schall, Hamline University, Hamline, Minn.; "A Nation's Sentence," J. W. Dawson, University of Colorado, Boulder, Col.; "The National Idea," O. A. Burnett, Wooster University, Wooster, Ohio; "The Second Duty of the Citizen," William Gorsuch, Knox College, Galesburg, Ill.; "John Randolph, of Roanoke."

The judges on thought and composition are John Clarke Ridpath, L. L. D., of Boston; Professor Brander Matthews, professor of literature in Columbia University and President Crawford, of Alleghany college. The judges on delivery are: Thomas Trueblood, of Michigan University; Dr. Caspar Whitney, Miami, First Congregational church, Cleveland, Ohio; President Henry Wade Rogers, Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill. A reception will be given after the contest by the Archæan Union, to the speakers, judges and visiting friends.

The contest will be given in the First Congregational church Thursday evening. This church has a seating capacity of 1,500.

On the afternoon of the same day occurs the base ball game with Purdue University, and on the following Saturday a game with Madison, tending to make this time one of special interest.

L. A. Howard, an engineer, met with a very severe accident yesterday afternoon in a corn shredder by which he will lose the greater part, if not the entire left hand. The accident happened at Hawthett's farm, where Mr. Howard was employed. He had been feeding the shredder, and thinking it was clogged up underneath he went behind the machine and got his hand caught in the knives. Drs. Nye, Hollister and Farr dressed the wound.

HOW KING WON A GENERALSHIP

DIFFICULTIES THE SOLDIER. AUTHOR ENCOUNTERED.

Secretary Alger and Many Other Prominent Officials Were Opposed to His Recognition—President of an Insurance Company Espoused the Cause of the Wisconsin Man.

It is now generally admitted that Capt. Charles King will be made a brigadier general and given command of the Wisconsin troops in the field. His fight for the appointment has been a vigorous one, and if he is as persistent and resourceful when he meets the enemy as he has been in this matter, good reports may be expected from him when he enters the field. The story of the difficulties encountered and the way they were overcome is an interesting one. The accuracy of it is vouched for by a prominent Wisconsin official who has been on the inside, and some of the features of it are as follows: "Secretary Alger started in," says one who knows, "determined not to listen to the demand for commands for retired officers of the regular army and that was the first obstacle. Gen. Alger said 'no' very decidedly and his nose went up in the air when the application for a command for Captain King was made. 'We do not propose to commission retired officers; we want younger men.' And the big man of the war department supposed that he had settled the question. But the Wisconsin representatives had only just begun their fight. The next thing done was to open up the record of their candidate, show that he was not retired for age, but on account of honorable wounds received in the Indian wars; that he is only fifty-three years old, and that he is fully capable of taking the field for an active and arduous campaign. The result was that the original objections to the appointment had to be abandoned, but still the war secretary declined to endorse the recommendation.

"Then the badgers were moved on the white house and opened their batteries on the president in behalf of Captain King, showing letter upon letter from influential people all over the country. They had even enlisted strong support in New York, and one of the men who joined in the recommendation was President John A. McCall of the New York Life Insurance company, the big corporation that offered to supply the government with all the money that it wanted for war purposes. Mr. McCall was asked to send a personal letter to the president, but he did better than that, he went to Washington and spent a day and night at the White House as the guest of President McKinley, making his application personal. While nobody has yet spoken authoritatively on the question, we are given to understand that the matter of that appointment was fully settled before I left Washington."

The combined circus and menagerie of Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers is booked for an exhibition at the fair grounds on May 30. The big tents will be none too large to contain the crowds that will flock to see it.

The jury in the circuit court of Rock county was today excused until May 16.

SPAIN IS IN A TURMOIL

People Are in Revolt Against the Government.

RIOTS REPORTED FROM ALL THE CHIEF CITIES.

London, May 4—Special—A dispatch from Madrid, though censored to make it appear that the government fully controls the situation, clearly shows that the people throughout the country are turbulent, and are only held back by the militia. It is admitted that trouble has occurred at Barcelona and Valencia. Predictions are freely made that if Spain does not wipe out the defeat at Manila, a military government will be formed with Weyler as dictator.

Rumors of the assassination of Moret and Campos, and that Sagasta has taken refuge in the British embassy are discredited.

Madrid, May 4—Special—The whole country is reported as being perturbed. In addition to the riots at Valencia, necessitating a declaration of a state of siege, riots have occurred at Gijon. At Carriminal a bomb was exploded in front of the mayor's house.

Dispatches from the provinces report the occurrence of serious bread riots. Women are parading the streets clamoring for bread, and mobs are being forcibly dispersed by the troops.

Famine Threatens Havana.

Key West, May 4—Special—The steamer Antoine has been captured by the Newport off the Cuban coast. The captain says famine threatens the inhabitants of Havana. The soldiers are seizing all provisions, food is scarce and prices fabulously high.

Philadelphia, May 4—Special—A report is current that a Spanish spy has been found on board the cruiser St. Paul and placed under arrest. The officers of the ship refuse to confirm or deny the story. The man, it is said, is confined in the ship's brig.

Hong Kong, May 4—Special—The United States revenue cutter McCulloch has arrived at Mirs Bay. She left Manila before the battle between the American and Spanish squadrons.

It Means Business.

He Believes in the Draft.

In the North American Review for May Captain James Parker, U. S. A., deals with the question, "Should Our Volunteers Be Raised by Conscription?" Captain Parker describes in a most interesting manner how the armies of the United States were raised during the war of the rebellion, and he endeavors to show that an early and systematic application of the "draft" system would be of advantage to the country on the outbreak of the war.

THE TOBACCO MARKET.

Buying Practically Ended Throughout Wisconsin.

Edgerton, Wis., May 4—Tobacco buying is now practically ended in the local markets, but the dealers are still engaged in casing up their purchases. A few of the warehouses have been cleared, but more of them will be running for a few weeks. The impending revenue changes which congress is expected soon to enact has greatly unsettled the market for old stock, and business is extremely dull with local packers. No recent transactions of any amount have come to notice. The plant beds for another crop have now mostly been laid. These preparations seem to indicate a large acreage the coming season. The shipments out of storage at this point do not exceed 400 cases for the week to all points. Since last report 320 cases of cigar leaf were exported from New York.

Russell, Amelia McKay, Jane M. Taylor. It is expected that the trial of the Michaelstetter case will take about a week.

The Palmeter Marsh Near Oshkosh Brings $75,000

Oshkosh, May 4—Two thousand acres of marsh land in Winnebago and Waubesa counties, generally known as the Palmeter marsh, were sold at public auction yesterday by Sheriff Lampert to Joseph H. Porter and Frank P. Stanley for $75,000. The other bidder was the Palmeter interests. The marsh was formerly owned jointly by J. H. Porter, T. W. Stanley and L. R. Palmeter. A disagreement to the management of the cranberry marsh arose, and it was decided between the owners to dissolve partnership. A suit in partition was begun by Stanley and a receiver, A. Lang, was appointed. The claim of each partner was fixed and the land ordered sold and the proceeds distributed. The sale was confirmed by the court today.

MET FOR SOCIAL CONVERSE

Knights of the Globe and Their Families Have a Delightful Banquet.

The first annual banquet of Janesville Garrison No. 19, Knights of the Globe, was given last evening at Odd Fellows' hall, some eighty of the members and their families being present. The gathering was purely informal, and therefore every way delightful. An excellent cold collation was served, and at its conclusion these present entertained themselves with music and games until the hour for separation came. S. O. Burnham contributed to the evening's entertainment by an exhibition of the graphophone.

At the conclusion of the supper it was found that the caterer had greatly overestimated the needs of those who participated, and that there were many dishes of tempting salads and other viands unbroken. These were thoughtfully packed away, and were this morning sent to the "bold soldier boys" at Camp Harvey who comprise Captain Hanson's command.

DAILY ROUTINE IN CAMP HARVEY

JANESVILLE BOYS LEARNING A SOLDIER'S DUTIES.

Their Quarters Are Much Improved But Yet Far Different From Home Surroundings—Discipline Is Stricter Than Heretofore—Drilling the Raw Recruits In Progress.

Camp Harvey, May 4—As I write, I hear the commands of drill sergeants and the answering shrills of the recruits' step as they are drilling. And truly they work hard. Imagine from 8:20 to 11 a. m. and from 2:30 to 4 p. m. Just of right face, left face, right step, etc., with a little manual thrown in. You can see that the life of a soldier is not all play. But there is no shirking of any duty, and perhaps a desire to do more. So it goes all over the camp.

The weather has been beastly, and Captain J. B. Whiting, today expressed an opinion that we would be ordered away sooner than was the expectation for reason of the continued rains making the drill grounds well nigh useless as well as affecting the health of the men.

The announcement of Dawsey's victory was received with cheers and his picture adorns our quarters.

Have Good Quarters.

In regard to the sleeping accommodations of the men, would say that they are well satisfied. Of course we do not expect to have feather beds, but after our first night on the floor, and with the prospect of worse things ahead, the straw-filled "ticks" are luxurious. Everything we have with us was carried on our backs, and therefore nothing mars the extremely military appearance of the company quarters. Much attention is paid to cleanliness and order. The outfits are arranged with a regularity that does much to make one feel that active service has commenced. A rack has been erected for the rifle, an office fenced off for the captain and lieutenants, and the beds of the men arranged against the wall.

The ten volunteers who joined us yesterday are being worked hard. Whether they will or not be used, is a question to be decided by the medical examiners, and we hoped to have that started today, but no report has come to me yet of a beginning of the examination.

Private Wray is on detached service and is busy with the drills of the hospital corps.

Private Irish is in the signal corps and their flags are fluttering from the top of the grand stand twice a day, waving messages and answers to corps of other regiments.

Camp discipline is exceedingly strict. We men are not allowed to leave or enter the grounds without a pass, and visitors must leave before 7:45 p. m.

Market in Camp

After parade, conducted independently by regiments, the buildings grew rather noisy. Mock drills, imitation drum corps, the practicing of buglers and general racket of the enlisted men, who never seem happy if not making a noise, go to make these buildings very, very loud places. But before taps all had quieted down and at 10:30 the men are all in bed and they stay there till 5 a. m. Revell and them generally up and ready for breakfast.

Guard detail, today is Private Everson for Provost and Privates Knuch, Walley, Morton and Freeman for regimental.

The usual camp preying has commenced, consequently curses both loud and deep are constantly heard from men who have lost some portion of their outfit.

The water supply, under supervision of state engineers has been perfected and is now piped to every building. It is a great blessing that we should have good water.

The Milwaukee fire department has a chemical engine and men posted on the grounds. Not much danger of fire in the coupled buildings, but the others must have protection.

Mr. Herman Zander, wife of "A" company's First Sergeant, and Mrs. Fred Zelsoff visited us yesterday.

MAY NOT REACH THE FRONT

Prospect That the Wisconsin Regiments Will Garrison Washington.

Information was received from Senator Spooner yesterday to the effect that in all probability the Wisconsin brigade will be ordered to Washington.

Secretary Alger has telegraphed instructions to Captain Buck to conform as far as possible to the state law in regard to the National Guard, and to order out all of the battalion majors and adjutants. This will bring in twelve officers whom it was supposed the new volunteer army bill legislated out of office.

Huyler's Goods.

There is not a line of goods that compares in any way with Huyler's, excepting prices. You pay the same for chocolates and cocoas as Huyler brand as you would for Huyler's, and do not receive nearly as good an article. Huyler's sweet chocolate as a confection or for cooking is delicious, 10 cents a package. Huyler's baking chocolate and Huyler's cocoa are replacing the other makes, wherever they are once used. Why not get the best as long as the price is no higher? Sanborn's.

ORANGE 5 cents dozen at Sanborn's.

IN THE COLONIAL STYLE.

Design for a Simple Yet Elegant Cottage to Cost $2,500.

[Copyright, 1898, by George Diller, 22 Park Place, New York.]

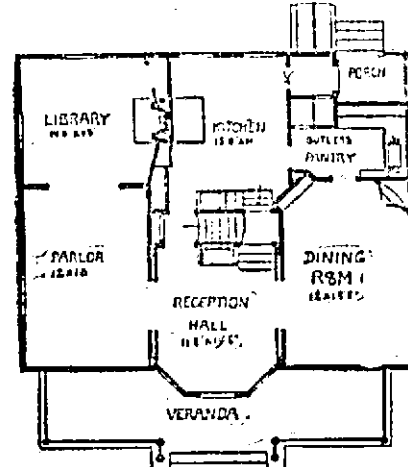

Building a house is very much like buying a pair of shoes. Do not buy a pair that is too small for you, for they will surely hurt you. Likewise do not build a house that is too small for you, one in which your family will be crowded. And, like a pair of shoes, a good house will outlast several poorly constructed ones. Do not decide in a hurry how you intend to build. Remember that Rome was not built in a day. Get all the points possible from your neighbors' buildings and improve upon them. Get papers and borrow books on architecture, so that you may formulate your ideas as to what you wish and what your circumstances require. Then sit down and roughly sketch out plans, and when you have finally come to time with yourself consult your friend the architect as to the feasibility and practicality of your design. He will give you an approximate value on your home and advise you on the minor details which have not occurred to you and which are indispensable to your comfort. When he has satisfied you, he can undoubtedly refer you to some reliable builder in your particular territory who has done other work for him and therefore understands his method of working, which is always more or less a saving of time and money to the owner. Employing a builder unknown to the architect necessitates considerable time and often a great deal of correspondence before all details are arranged.

The most profitable style of building nowadays is one in the colonial style, as it utilizes all possible space and at the same time embodies neatness, durability and last, but not least, cheapness.

This design was erected about 25 miles from New York. The first floor consists of parlor, dining room, library, reception hall, kitchen and butler's pantry. The front piazza covers the entire front portion of the building. On the second floor are four chambers and a bathroom, with all modern improvements, and one room to be used as a schoolroom, a playroom or a sewing room, or it may be pressed into service as a spare bedroom. This room opens on a balcony over the rear piazza.

In the attic two large rooms are finished off, while one other room is finished for a storeroom. The attic chamber rooms are finished for the use of the servants. The cellar is 7 feet deep; first floor, 9 feet 6 inches; second floor, 9 feet. The entire house is heated throughout by a hot water boiler of approved make, with radiators in the various rooms, concealed pipes being used. The plumbing is all open, nickel plated work. A fireplace is arranged in the library suitable for burning large wood. The laundry is situated in the cellar. There is also a servants' water closet in the cellar. The cost of this building within a radius of 25 miles of New York will not exceed $2,500.

Little Hope of Union.

The commissioners appointed by the Methodist churches, North and South, met in Baltimore last month to consider what could be done towards bringing the two bodies together. It is hoped to prevent the intrusion of one body into a field already occupied by the other, whether at home or abroad. There seems to be little hope, however, of organic union, in spite of the fact that the question upon which the bodies split apart years ago has long since been closed. It is the old story of a schism once begun, having apparently no end. In less than a century after the Methodists broke away from the mother church in England there were no less than seventeen different Methodist bodies.

A little boy asked for a bottle of "get up in the morning as fast as you can." The druggist recognized a household name for "DoWitt's Little Early Riser," and gave him a bottle of these famous little pills for constipation, sick headache, liver and stomach troubles. People's Drug Co.

COLD CURE

The Elephant's Neck.
The reason the elephant's neck is short is that the head of the animal is so heavy that were it placed at the end of a neck proportionate to the dimensions of that member in other animals an almost incalculable amount of muscular force would be necessary to elevate and sustain it. The almost total absence of a neck obviates the difficulty and the trunk serves as a substitute. The uses and advantages of a long neck, peculiarly exemplified in the giraffe, which contains only the same number of vertebral articulations as in the elephant, are in the latter supplied by the trunk or proboscis, by which he is enabled to carry food to his mouth and to drink by suction. This curious organ contains a vast number of muscles variously interlaced, is extremely flexible, endowed with the most exquisite sensibility and the utmost diversity of motion, and compensates amply for the absence of a long neck.—Ex.

Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip.
The Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, which is now found in eighteen denominations, announces a Brotherhood Day, and in doing so says that the old church year has saints' days; the new religious society days. In other words, individual has given place to organized piety. This is the natural sequence of what Bishop Potter of New York calls "Institutional Christianity." When the other day a new organization was proposed to the bishop of London, he replied that the only new one needed was one for the painless extinction of a large proportion of existing ones. The new Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip day is the first Sunday in May. The brotherhood is for men only, and aims to stimulate them to try to influence other men to attend religious services.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK
called Grain O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee, sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the best coffee but is free from all injurious properties. Grain O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 1¢ as much as coffee, 15¢ and 25¢.

THE INSURANCE

Gasoline : Stove!

A. LONG . FELT . WANT

The Smallest child or the most careless person cannot have an accident in any way, shape, or manner with the Insurance Gasoline Stove. It is just what its name implies. It insures perfect safety. It does not burn gasoline, but the gas from gasoline. The burner is heated and lighted by an asbestos torch and must reach a certain degree of heat before an automatic shut-off opens and admits the gas so that it lights. The "Insurance" is the only stove in which there is any provision made to cut off the supply of gasoline should the burner be accidentally exploded or carelessly left open.

The moment the flame is extinguished the burner commences to cool and shuts off the gas automatically. At no time is there gasoline in any part of the burner for a chance to ignite.

You Can't Explode It While Filling It,

BECAUSE an inner tank must be removed and turned bottom side up before it can be filled, so that in an unthinking moment the gasoline can be brought too near the forgotten lighted burner. Insurance Gasoline Stoves must be seen to be fully appreciated. There are too many superior points to tell about in this ad. Once seen if you have gasoline experience you will swear by the Insurance.

MCKINLEY AT WINCHESTER.

In discussing the battle of Winchester, a historian writes as follows concerning President (then Lieutenant) McKinley:

When it became necessary to fall back it was discovered that one of the regiments was still at the point where it was posted at the beginning of the battle. General Hayes, turning to Lieutenant McKinley, directed him to go and bring away the regiment if it had not already fallen back. McKinley turned his horse and keenly scanned the position at a bare gallop obliquely toward the advancing enemy. A sudden look over General Hayes' face as he saw this gallant young boy push rapidly forward to almost certain death. None of us expected to see him again as he pushed his horse through the open fields, over fences, over ditches, while a well-directed fire from the enemy was poured upon him, with shells exploding around, about and over him. Once he was completely enveloped in the smoke of an exploding shell, and we thought he had gone down, but out of this smoke emerged his tiny little brown horse with McKinley still firmly seated as a busar. He reached the regiment and gave the order to fall back. The regiment in reply said: "I am ready to go, wherever you shall lead, but lieutenant, I believe I ought to give those fellows a volley or two before I go."

McKinley's reply was: "Then up and at them as quickly as possible," and on orders the regiment arose, gave the enemy a crushing volley, followed with a rattling fire, and then slowly retreated under McKinley's lead toward Winchester. As McKinley drew up by the side of Hayes after bringing the regiment to the brigade, Gen. Hayes said: "McKinley, I never expected to see you in life again."

In extenuation and as a matter of precedent, the attention of the Janesville police is called to the fact that the Alcoma, Wis. Press says: "City Marshal Frank Chapek appeared in his new uniform for the first time last Sunday. With a regulation suit and helmet, officer Chapek has all the appearances of a veritable metropolitan policeman." Janesville, you see, can hardly be satisfied to march in the procession behind Alcoma.

The Spaniards held a festival on Monday in honor of the anniversary both of the liberation of Spain from France and of the "naval victory" of Spain at Callao, Peru, in 1880. By stretching a point a bit, future celebrations of these two events can be made to also commemorate the "Spanish victory at Manila."

The announcement is made on the best authority, that General Charles A. King will have command of the Wisconsin troops. This arrangement will be satisfactory to all the Badger soldiers.

An exchange says: "Havana is in turmoil of uncertainty," by charging the word uncertainty to "certainty" the situation is truly described. The people of Havana know what is coming.

Hayti, after hanging out for twenty years, has decided to give Americans the same rights of trade as the natives. The rush to "get in line," it appears, is now on.

English newspapers say Dewey's victory is on a plane with Farragut's, and British opinions on naval affairs are certainly to be considered "expert testimony."

Many Wisconsin cities celebrated Dewey's victory by ringing bells and blowing whistles. Janesville people were less demonstrative, but equally appreciative.

And now it is said that there will be no concert of the powers, owing to Uncle Sam's action in cutting the Spanish guitar strings.

Spain now knows what our big guns can do, but she has yet to learn how it feels to be pestered by the mosquito fleet.

General Weyler says "War is no picnic." Hutchery is Weyler's picnic, but he has much to learn about war.

CONSTANT READER—You are right. A Manila rope should be used to hang the man who blew up the Maine.

The war has also had the effect of making many people "brush up" on their geography.

Commodore Dewey is now getting the benefit of his greatness—the newspapers are printing his portraits, no two of which are alike. As both Gen.

Lee and Capt. Sigbee have survived the ordeal, however, there is every reason to believe that the gallant commodore will be able to escape alive.

As naval, the succeeding day was humid and the moisture descended upon the earth.

And there is also a general belief that there are no bells on Commodore Schley.

And Commodore Dewey has plenty of coal, powder and projectiles left.

The only real Havana on earth is soon to go up in smoke.

Dewey, or Dewey not? We don't know.

MORE SUNDAY EXCURSIONS

Prospect of a Repetition of Last Sunday's Trips to Milwaukee.

WHAT IT COST THEM
TO "GET ELECTED"LOCAL OFFICE HOLDERS FILE THEIR LISTS.

Small Amounts Were Used Outside of the Regular City Campaign Fund, Raised By Assessment of the Candidates—The Figures in Detail As Sworn To.

Politicians who took an active part in the late city election were on hand today in the office of Register of Deeds O. D. Howe to file with the proper officials, a sworn statement setting forth in detail all money contributed, expended or disbursed by each in an endeavor to gain nomination and election.

Candidates whether successful or unsuccessful who shall fail to file their expense accounts shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500.

As many of the candidates voted for at the recent election, have failed as yet to file statements in accordance with the law, it behooves them to at once make a move in this very important matter. The time for filing these sworn statements will expire May 5, the election is deferred to having been held on April 5.

The Two Bills of Expense. According to the papers already filed it shows that the republicans managed to expend $95.70 out of a campaign fund of $99, which was cheerfully given by the interested candidates who reside in the city.

The democratic candidates and a few of their friends gave $60 for the good of the cause, while their total expenses foot up to $68.

The committee still owes Daniel Ryan for carriage, $5.

SEVERAL CASES HEARD IN THE CIRCUIT COURT TODAY.

Arguments Heard In the Case Of Schowalter vs. McNair, and Submitted on Motion For Nonsuit—Verdict in the Taylor vs. Stevens Action In Favor Of Plaintiff.

The case of Edwa d J. Schowalter vs. Charles W. McNair et al., was heard in the circuit court of Rock county today, with Attorneys Winans and Russell in support of the plaintiff, and Smith & Flores for the defendant. The following jury has the case in hand: T. O. Lynch, A. C. Powers, R. P. Young, Ralph Eldster, A. S. Lee, Frank Clark, O. E. Langworthy, D. E. Jones, Charles Van Halder, John Parker, Andrew Saberson, C. H. Robinson. The case was opened on the part of the plaintiff by Hon. John Winans and on the part of the defendant by William Smith. Several witnesses were called on the part of the plaintiff. Certain contracts, letters and documents were offered and received in evidence, the same being particularly described in the reporter's minutes. The plaintiff then rested and the defendant by the attorneys made a motion for a nonsuit, which motion was overruled by the court.

The jury yesterday in the case of F. A. Taylor vs. A. W. Stevens brought in a verdict in accordance with instructions from the court in favor of the plaintiff for $3.55 for certain labor and repairs furnished by him on the machines in question. In the case of E. T. Wilson vs. Edwin T. Moore the court ordered the plaintiff to have judgment in the sum of $822 damages, and costs taxed at $23.23.

The plaintiff claims that as the result of a deal in leaf tobacco he still has coming from said defendant a goodly sum in cash. The plaintiff, who is a Racine cigar maker, claims that in September, 1890, he purchased of said defendant, who was then a dealer in leaf located at Broadhead, a crop of leaf that amounted to some $1,200, and that on the purchase of said crop he paid $1,000 down, for which he didn't receive full value, alleging that he received but $121 worth of leaf as the result of the shipments.

A TEACHER OF MEN.

A Young Woman's Unique Position in an Indiana Law College.

Miss Florence Higgins of Francisville, Ind., is the first and only woman in the world to occupy the chair of elocution and rhetoric in a law college. The position of instructing lawyers in elocution and rhetoric is one that would hardly be associated with a very attractive young woman even in these days when up to date women are making their way in almost every known occupation.

Elocution and rhetoric are to the student of law two important branches of his education and cannot be passed over with scant attention, as they are usually by the average college boy. The professor of these branches in a law school consequently must have a high standing and unusual ability before being able to secure the appointment.

Her success, however, was not a surprise to her intimates, for as a child she was generally regarded as a prodigy. She was born at Francisville, and at the tender age of 6 years she could read fluently. She early showed a decided talent for dramatic art, and at 10 years, as an impersonator, she was the wonder and admiration of her friends. When only 13, she was a graduate in elocution from the Northern Indiana Normal college at Valparaiso. At 14 she completed the scientific course of the same college, taking the degree of B. S. She has since studied oratory and dramatic art.

When only 17, she had completed her studies and accepted the chair of elocution and rhetoric at the normal college, where her rare qualities and exceptional ability attracted the attention of the management of the law school and secured her her present unique position. Apart from her ability as an elocutionist, Miss Higgins is also proficient in the arts of music and painting.—Detroit Free Press.

Suffrage For Women In Ireland.

Another great gain has been made for woman suffrage in the passage of the Irish local self government bill by the parliament of Great Britain. Municipal woman suffrage, conferred on English women in 1869, proved so satisfactory that it was extended to the women of Scotland in 1881. Now, after the experience of a generation (29 years), it is extended to the women of Ireland also. Under the new bill single women and widows in Ireland will vote for all officers except members of parliament on substantially the same terms as men. Before this municipal suffrage for women in Ireland was limited to Belfast, where they obtained it some years ago through the efforts of Miss Isabella Todd and other Irish women on the occasion of the granting of a new city charter.

We congratulate the friends of equal suffrage on this emphatic evidence of the value of municipal woman suffrage. Now, will our friends of the Boston Pilot tell us why women in Dublin and Cork should exercise a right denied to Irish women in Boston? Let us hope that the spectacle of self respecting, public spirited women voting in Ireland may create a change of feeling among their countrymen and countrywomen on this side of the Atlantic.—Woman's Journal.

A Plucky Young Woman.

Miss Emma Stoddard, United States mail carrier, has proved herself a plucky young woman and a faithful servant of the government. Regardless of the rigors of winter, she has made her 18 mile journey between Canton and Ponkapog postoffice every 24 hours since she was awarded the contract last fall. She makes two trips each way daily. In carrying the evening mail it was necessary during the short winter days to make the journey after dark, and it was predicted that she would be frightened and give up the work. Not so!—Exchange.

Patti as a Widow.

This description of Patti as a widow lately appeared in a German newspaper: "In dress of dead white satin the diva stood, her waist and skirt plain and unadorned with puffs or plaits. Over the whole was a trimming of dull jet, put in dish not fashion, veiling, but not concealing the lustered satin. Upon her shoulders were bows of dull satin ribbon, and in place of her diamond stars her corsage was illumined with brilliant jet suns. Her gloves and fan were black as a raven's wing."

Flower Fans.

A happy idea, started by foreign fan-makers, is to conceal long tubes in the fan sticks, so that bunches of flowers may be firmly held in them. The effect is a fan of natural flowers, as charming as it is novel, while the odor wafted in fanning is most delicious. The new fan will be to order flowers for one's fan and to study floral effects in connection with corsage bouquets and skirt trimmings.

THE COAST IS IN DANGER.

Location of the Spanish Fleet in Cuba First He Learned—It May Be Necessary to Withdraw Our Troops from Cuban Waters—Arming the Insurgents.

Washington, May 3.—The government is preparing to effect a swift change in the plan of army and navy campaign, if the change shall be made necessary by the movements of the Spanish war vessels now supposed to be approaching our waters. The fear that the northern coast may be made the object of attack by the Spaniards has caused the army and navy administrations to provide for the worst emergency of that kind.

It has been practically decided to hold in abeyance the plans for landing a military force in Cuba on May 4 until the whereabouts of the Spanish fleet, which left the Cape Verde islands last week, becomes known. It is not feared that the troops and their equipment could not be landed before the arrival of the Spanish vessels, allowing time for the American ships to return to their present stations, but the government is reluctant to land the men and leave them without strong naval protection. It is impossible to afford this protection in view of the necessity of sending ships northward to look out for the defense of the coast cities.

Although there is some probability that the expedition to Cuba will be postponed for a short time, the insurgent army will not be without arms and ammunition, supplied by Americans. Within a few days rifles and cartridges in large quantities have been landed on the island, and safely delivered to the insurgents, who co-operated with the naval commander in the undertaking. It is a fact, known to a few persons, that other munitions of war are just now being delivered by this government to the armies of Gomez and Garcia. The first installment of arms and ammunition was delivered by vessels of Admiral Sampson's squadron under his direction.

WAR NEWS READY.

Congress Has Provided for Pay of the Volunteers.

Washington, May 3.—The urgent deficiency appropriation of about $35,000, recommended last week by the secretary of war to meet the extra expenses to be incurred in the remaining two months of the current fiscal year, was passed by the house Monday without division. The conference report on the naval appropriation bill was agreed to without debate, thus disposing of that measure.

In the senate the war revenue bill, as passed by the house, was received and referred to the finance committee.

A conference was ordered on the sundry civil appropriation bill, and Senators Allison, Hale and Gorman were appointed senate conferees.

The second conference report on the naval appropriation bill was presented by Mr. Hale and agreed to without division.

Mr. Butler (pop., N. C.) made an argument in favor of his resolution against the increase of the bonded indebtedness, and declaring that the necessary means to carry on the war should be raised by an income tax, issuing silver certificates against the seigniorage, and an increase of legal-tender notes. The resolution was referred to the finance committee.

The bill appropriating $35,720,945 for the equipment and pay and subsistence during the months of May and June, and for torpedoes for harbor defense, armament of fortifications, and engineering outfit for an expedition to Cuba, was received from the house. It was passed without amendment. Mr. Cockrell stating that the bill had nothing to do with the organization of the army, with its increase or decrease, but simply provided for pay.

Those then, at 4 p. m., adjourned till Wednesday.

TALK OF TERMS OF PEACE.

Optimistic Congressmen Consider the War Virtually Over.

Washington, May 3.—The views of those optimistic public men who are declaring that Dewey's decisive victory had ended the war with Spain, and that a collapse of the enemy's cause will follow soon, are not shared by the president and the members of the administration. It is among congressmen that these predictions of a speedy termination of hostilities are most frequently heard. So strong is this conviction among certain of the legislators that serious consideration is already given to questions concerning terms of peace.

There has been some general discussion among senators of the character of the demands the United States should make on Spain to prevent further disaster to the Spanish arms. One proposition which met with favor was that the treaty should contain a provision by which Spain should cede Porto Rico to this country as payment for the Maine and as a war indemnity.

But President McKinley does not put any faith in the view that the end of war is in sight. He understands that Havana must be taken before success can come to the land and naval forces of the United States in their efforts to drive the Spaniards from Cuba. The uncertainty involving the purpose of the fleet which left St. Vincent a few days ago is also a cause of worry. Few, if any, of the president's advisors Thirty-five years make a generation. That is how long Adolph Fisher, of Zanesville, O., suffered from piles. He was cured by using three boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. People's Drug Co., corner Main and Mill Sts.

A Hundred Reasons

Can be given why Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best and most effective cure for every form of indigestion.

They are in tablet form, which retains their good qualities indefinitely, while liquid preparations become stale and useless with age.

They are convenient, can be carried in the pocket and taken when needed. They are pleasant to the taste.

After each meal dissolve one or two of them in the mouth and, mingling with the food, they constitute a perfect digestive, absolutely safe for the most sensitive stomach.

They digest the food before it has time to ferment, thus preventing the formation of gas and keeping the blood pure and free from the poisonous product of fermented, half-digested food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make the complexion clear by keeping the blood pure.

They increase flesh by digesting flesh-forming foods.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only remedy deservedly expected for the cure of stomach troubles and nothing else.

One disease, one remedy, the successful physician of today is the specialist. The successful medicine is the medicine prepared especially for one disease.

A whole package taken at one time would not hurt you but would simply be a waste of good material.

Over six thousand men and women in the state of Michigan alone have been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package.
